PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

This year, we have restructured our Fall League to include weekly player development sessions for all players in the league to help create the total package of skill development and live repetitions. Athletes will be able to participate in 2 skill development sessions a week, led by our top Grand Slam instructors, focusing on defense, hitting, and pitching and catching if applicable. These player development sessions will allow athletes to hone their skills with more individual attention and instruction, and then execute those skills in weekend games. This will provide a more well rounded, development focused league experience.

EVALUATION CAMP INFORMATION

Our Evaluation Camp is formatted very similar to the showcase format. Players will be tested on footspeed, arm strength, bat speed, lateral quickness, and defensive skills. We will also have pitchers and catchers, we also have each of them throw and catch bullpens. For pitchers we will be charting their velocity, how well they pitch around the zone, and how well they throw their off-speed pitches. For catchers we will be evaluating how well they receive the pitch, how well they block balls in the dirt, and how well they work with pitchers. Data will be collected by Rapsodo where applicable. Data gathered at this Camp will be sent directly to the following schools if certain criteria is met. Each of them sets their own criteria.
